The State central committee of each political party shall be composed of members elected from the several congressional districts of the State, as herein provided, and of no other person or persons whomsoever. The members of the State central committee shall, within thirty days after their election, meet in the city of Springfield and organize by electing from among their own number a chairman, and may at such time elect such officers from among their own number or otherwise, as they may deem necessary or expedient. The outgoing chairman of the State central committee of the party shall, ten days before the meeting, notify each member of the State central committee elected at the primary of the time and place of such meeting.

D. 1910, and at the April primary held every two years thereafter, each primary elector may write or attach in the space left on the primary ballot for that purpose the name of one qualified elector of his party in the precinct for member of his political party precinct committee. The one having the highest number of votes shall be such committeeman of such party for such precinct. In case of a tie the primary judges shall cast lots. (6) POWERS AND DUTIES.] Each committee and its officers shall have the powers usually exercised by such committees and by the officers thereof, not inconsistent with the provisions of this Act. The several committees herein provided for shall not have power to delegate any of their powers or functions to any other person, officer or committee, but this shall not be construed to prevent a committee from appointing from its own membership proper and necessary sub-committees, and particularly defining, by resolution, the duties of such sub-committees.

(7) EXISTING PARTY COMMITTEES RECOGNIZED.] The various political party committees now in existence are hereby recognized and shall exercise the powers and perform the duties herein prescribed until committeemen are chosen, in accordance with the provisions of this Act. Such meeting of the county central committee shall be known as the county convention. The county convention of each political party shall choose delegates to the congressional and State convention of its party: Provided, only precinct and ward committeemen of the respective precincts and wards within the limits of a congressional district shall participate in the selection of delegates to a congressional convention: And, provided, further, that in the county convention that each of such precinct committeemen in the county convention shall have one vote and one additional vote for each fifty votes or major fraction thereof of his party cast in his precinct for Governor at the last general election and that each of such ward committeemen shall have one vote for each precinct in his ward and one additional vote for each fifty votes or major fraction thereof of his party cast in each precinct of his ward for Governor at the last general election.

(c) [STATE CONVENTIONS.] All State conventions shall be held on the first Friday after the first Monday next succeeding the April primary. The State convention of each political party shall have power to make nominations of candidates for the electors of President and Vice President of the United States and for trustees of the University of Illinois, and to adopt any party platform.

(d) FUNCTIONS OF CONVENTIONS.] Each convention may perform all other functions inherent to such political organization and not inconsistent with this Act.

(e) CALLS, FOR CONVENTIONS—FILING—FORM.] At least thirty-three (33) days before the April primary the State and congressional committee, respectively, of each political party shall file in the office of the county clerk in each county of the State, or in each county of the congressional district, a call for the State and congressional conventions. Said call shall state, among other things, the time and place (designating the building or hall) for holding the State and congressional conventions, respectively, the total number of delegates which shall compose each of said conventions, and the call for State conventions shall state, among other things, the number of delegates to which each county is entitled in the State convention, and the call for the congressional convention shall state, among other things, the number of delegates to which each county or political subdivision of any county, as the case may be, is entitled to in the congressional convention. Such call shall be signed by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the respective committees. [As amended June 30, 1913.

Sec. 11. ALDERMEN UNDER MINORITY REPRESENTATION.] In cities which have adopted minority representation in the city council, the city central committee shall, at least thirty (30) days prior to the date of the primary, by resolution, fix and determine the number of candidates for alderman in such of the wards of their city to be nominated by their party at the primary for the nomination of candidates for city offices.

A copy of said resolutions, duly certified by the chairman and attested by the secretary, shall, within two days thereafter, be filed in the office of the city clerk.

In all primaries for the nomination of candidates for alderman under minority representation, each qualified (minority) elector may cast as many votes for one candidate as there are candidates to be nominated, or may distribute the same, or equal parts thereof, among the candidates for nomination as he shall see fit, and the candidate for nomination highest in votes shall be declared nominated.

Sec. 12. NOTICE OF PRIMARY — DUTY OF CLERKS.] At least twenty (20) days before each primary the county clerk of each county, or the city, village or town or other clerk, whose duty it is to give notice of general elections under the general election laws of this State, for the election of officers whose nomination is required to be made under the provisions of this Act, shall prepare in the manner provided in the general election laws of this State, a notice of such primary, which notice shall state the time and place of holding the primary, the hours during which the polls will be open, the offices for which candidates will be nominated at such primary and the political parties entitled to participate therein. Such notices shall be posted at least fifteen (15) days prior to the primary by the same authorities and in the same manner as notices of election under the general election laws are required to be posted.

Sec. 13. JUDGES OF PRIMARY.] The judges of general elections for State and county officers, for city and village officers and for town and other municipal officers, are hereby constituted respectively the judges of primary elections in their respective precincts, under the provisions of this Act.

Sec. 14. JUDGES HOLD OVER.] It is hereby made the duty of the respective judges of general elections to act as judges of primary elections in their respective precincts until their successors, as judges of general elections, are duly appointed and qualified.

Sec. 15. JUDGES ABSENT, ETC.—VACANCIES.] If, at the time for opening of a primary, one of the primary judges be absent, or refuse to act, the judges present shall appoint some qualified primary elector of the precinct to act in his place. If two of the primary judges be absent or refuse to act, the judges present shall fill the vacancies in the same manner, as above provided. If all three of the primary judges be absent, or refuse to act, the primary electors present, who reside in the precinct, shall select three of their number to act as primary judges. The judges so selected and appointed shall take the same oath, have the same powers, and perform the same duties and be subject to the same penalties as regularly constituted election judges.

Sec. 16. CLERKS OF PRIMARY.] The primary judges in each precinct, except in cities having a board of election commissioners, shall select three qualified primary electors of said precinct to act as primary clerks, who shall continue to serve during the pleasure of said primary judges but no more than two persons of the same political party shall be chosen primary clerks in the same precinct.

In cities having a board of election commissioners, the regularly appointed clerks of election shall act as clerks of the primary in their respective precincts.

Sec. 17. OATH OF JUDGES AND CLERKS—FORM—LIABILITY.] Previous to any vote being taken, the primary judges and clerks shall severally subscribe and take an oath or affirmation in the following form, to wit:

“I do solemnly swear (or affirm, as the case may be), that I will support the Constitution of the United States and the Constitution of the State of Illinois, and will faithfully and honestly discharge the duties of primary judge (or clerk, as the case may be), according to the best of my ability, and that I have resided in this State for one year, in this county for ninety days, and in this precinct thirty days next preceding this primary, and am entitled to vote at this primary.”

All persons subscribing the oath as aforesaid, and all persons actually serving as primary judges and clerks, whether sworn or not, shall be deemed to be and are hereby declared to be officers of the county court of their respective counties; and such persons shall be liable to punishment by such court in a proceeding for contempt for any misbehavior as such primary judges or clerks, to be tried in open court, on oral testimony in a summary manner, without written pleadings, but such trial, or punishment for contempt of court, shall not be any bar to any criminal proceedings against such primary judges or clerks for any violation of this Act.

Sec. 18. OATH OF JUDGES AND CLERKS — ADMINISTRATIONS.] In case there shall be no justice of the peace or notary public present at the opening of a primary, or in case such justice of the peace or notary public shall be appointed one of the primary judges or clerks, it shall be lawful for the primary judges to administer the oath or affirmation to each other, and to the primary clerks.

Sec. 19. JUDGES AND CLERKS—POWERS AND DUTIES.] The primary judges and clerks, except as otherwise provided in this Act, shall perform the same duties, have the same powers, and be subject to the same penalties as judges and clerks of general elections, under the election laws of this State.

Sec. 20. JUDGES AND CLERKS—PAY.] Primary judges and clerks shall receive the same pay, and shall be paid by the same authorities and in the same manner as judges and clerks under the election laws of this State.

Sec. 21. CHALLENGERS.] The candidate or candidates of each party may appoint, in writing, over his or their signature, two party agents or representatives, who shall act as challengers or watchers for such respective candidate or candidates in each precinct. Such challengers or watchers shall be protected in the discharge of their duties by the primary judges and peace officers and shall be permitted to remain within the polling place in such position as will enable them to see each person as he offers his vote, and said challengers or watchers may remain within the polling place throughout the canvass of the vote in such position as will enable them to see the said canvass and until the returns are signed. All challengers or watchers shall be qualified primary electors residing within their respective wards, senatorial or congressional districts, and shall have the same power as challengers at general elections. [As amended May 27, 1912.

Sec. 22. BOOTHS — ELECTIONEERING PROHIBITED.] All officers upon whom is imposed by law the duty of designating and providing polling places for general elections, shall provide in each such polling place so designated and provided, a sufficient number of booths for such primary election, which booths shall be provided with shelves, such supplies and pencils as will enable the voter to prepare his ballot for voting and in which voters may prepare their ballots screened from all observation as to the manner in which they do so, and the guard rail shall be so constructed and placed that only such persons as are inside said rail can approach, within six feet of the ballot box and of such voting booths. The arrangement shall be such that the voting booths can only be reached by passing within said rail. Such booths shall be within plain view of the election officers and both they and the ballot boxes shall be within plain view of those outside the guard rail. No person other than the election officers and the challengers allowed by law and those admitted for the purpose of voting, as hereinafter provided, shall be permitted within the guard rail, except by authority of the primary officers to keep order and enforce the law.

The number of such voting booths shall not be less than one to every seventy-five voters or fraction thereof, who voted at the last preceding election in the precinct or election district.

No person whatever shall do any electioneering or soliciting of votes on primary day within any polling place or within one hundred feet of any polling place.

In cities having a board of election commissioners, the following additional regulations shall be applicable: In such cities only voters, registered as herein provided, shall be entitled to vote at such primary. The registration books prepared for and used at the election then next preceding shall be used for the primary, and any person therein registered shall be entitled to vote at the primary unless he shall have removed from the election precinct or become otherwise disqualified.  Judge of Primary.

Sec. 46. BALLOT — HOW MARKED.]
 On receiving from the primary judges a primary ballot of his party, the primary elector shall forthwith and without leaving the polling place, retire alone to one of the voting booths and prepare such primary ballot by marking a cross (X) in the square in front of and opposite the name of each candidate of his choice for each office to be filled.

At the primary at which a precinct committeeman is to be elected the primary elector may write or attach at the bottom of his primary ballot, in the space provided for that purpose, the name of one primary elector of his precinct, member of and affiliated with his political party, for precinct committeeman. No other mark or designation shall be necessary to indicate the primary elector's choice for precinct committeeman.

Any primary elector may, instead of voting for any candidate for nomination or for committeeman whose name is printed on the primary ballot, write in the name of any other person affiliated with such party as a candidate for the nomination for any office, or for committeeman, and indicate his choice of such candidate or committeeman by placing to the left of and opposite the name thus written a square and by placing in the square a cross (X). And at the primary at which precinct committeemen are to be elected he shall write at the bottom of his primary ballot, in the space provided for that purpose, the name of one primary elector of his precinct, member of and affiliated with his political party, for precinct committeeman. No squares need be placed in front of the names of persons so voted for for precinct committeemen.

Sec. 47. BALLOT — HOW VOTED.] Before leaving the booth, the primary elector shall fold his primary ballot in such manner as to conceal the marks thereon. Such voter shall then vote forthwith by handing the primary judge the primary ballot received by such voter. Thereupon the primary judge shall deposit such primary ballot in the ballot box. The primary clerk shall thereupon enter in the primary poll book the name of the primary elector, his residence and his party affiliation.

Sec. 48. ASSISTANCE TO VOTER.] Any primary elector who may declare upon oath that he cannot read the English language, or that by reason of any physical disability he is unable to mark his ballot shall, upon request, be assisted in marking his primary ballot in the same manner as provided by the general election laws of this State.

Sec. 49. NO ADJOURNMENT FOR RECESS.] After the opening of the polls at a primary no adjournment shall be had nor recess taken until the canvass of all the votes is completed and the returns carefully enveloped and sealed.

Sec. 50. CANVASS AT POLLING PLACE.] The votes shall be canvassed in the room or place where the primary is held and the primary judges shall not allow the ballot box or any of the ballots, or the primary poll book, or any of the tally sheets to be removed or carried away from such room or polling place until the canvass of the votes is completed and the returns carefully enveloped and sealed.

Sec. 51. BALLOTS—DEFECTIVE, OBJECTED TO, SPOILED, ETC.] If the primary elector marks more names upon the primary ballot than there are persons to be nominated as candidates for an office, or for State central committeeman, precinct or ward committeemen, or delegates or alternate delegates to National nominating conventions, or if for any reason it is impossible to determine the primary elector's choice of a candidate for the nomination for an office, or committeeman, or delegate or alternate delegate to National nominating conventions, his primary ballot shall not be counted for the nomination for such office or committeeman, or delegate or alternate delegate to National nominating conventions.

No primary ballot, without the endorsement of the judge's initials thereon, shall be counted. Any judge wilfully omitting to endorse his initials on a primary ballot, as required by this Act, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and punishable by a fine not exceeding one hundred dollars for each offense.

Primary ballots not counted shall be marked "defective" on the back thereof; and primary ballots to which objections have been made by either of the primary judges or challengers shall be marked "objected to" on the back thereof; and a memorandum, signed by the primary judges, stating how it was counted, shall be written on the back of each primary ballot so marked; and all primary ballots marked "defective" or "objected to" shall be enclosed in an envelope and securely sealed, and so marked and endorsed as to clearly disclose its contents.

All primary ballots not voted, and all that have been spoiled by voters while attempting to vote, shall be returned to the proper clerk, by the primary judges, and a receipt taken therefor, and shall be preserved three months. Such official shall keep a record of the number of primary ballots delivered for each polling place, and he or they shall also enter upon such record the number and character of primary ballots returned, with the time when and the persons by whom they are returned. [As amended June 30, 1913.

Sec. 52. CANVASS OF BALLOTS.] Immediately upon closing the polls, the primary judges shall proceed to canvass the votes in the manner following:

(1) They shall separate and count the ballots of each political party;

(2) They shall then proceed to ascertain the number of names entered on the primary poll books under each party affiliation;

(3) If the primary ballots of any political party exceed in number the names of voters of such political party entered on the primary poll books, the primary ballots of such political party shall be folded and replaced in the ballot box, the box closed, well shaken and again opened and one of the primary judges, who shall be blindfolded, shall draw out and destroy so many of the primary ballots of such political party as shall be equal to such excess;

(4) The primary judges shall then proceed to count the primary ballots of each political party separately; and as the primary judges shall open and read the primary ballots, each primary clerk shall carefully and correctly mark upon the tally sheets the votes which each candidate of the party whose name is written or printed on the primary ballot has received, in a separate column for that purpose, with the name of such candidate, the name of his political party and the name of the office for which he is a candidate for nomination at the head of such column.

Sec. 53. CANVASS OF BALLOTS—FORM OF CERTIFICATE.] As soon as the ballots of a political party shall have been read and the votes of said political party counted, as provided in the last above section, the primary clerks shall foot up the tally sheets so as to show the total number of votes cast for each candidate of said political party and for each candidate for State central committeeman and precinct or ward committeeman, or delegate or alternate delegate to National nominating conventions, and certify the same to be correct. Thereupon, the primary judges shall set down in the primary poll books, under the name of said political party, the name of each candidate voted for upon the primary ballot, written at full length, the name of the office for which he is a candidate for nomination or for committeeman, or delegate or alternate delegate to National nominating conventions, the total number of votes which said candidate received, and the primary poll books to be made substantially in the following form:

AN ACT TO PROVIDE FOR THE HOLDING OF PRIMARY ELECTIONS BY POLITICAL PARTIES FOR THE NOMINATION OF MEMBERS OF THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY AND THE ELECTION OF SENATORIAL COMMITTEEMEN. [APPROVED MARCH 9, 1910. AS AMENDED AND IN FORCE JULY 1, 1913.]

SECTION 1. NOMINATIONS FOR MEMBERS OF GENERAL ASSEMBLY—SENATORIAL COMMITTEEMEN.] Be it enacted by the People of the State of Illinois, represented in the General Assembly: The nomination of all candidates for members of the General Assembly by all political parties, and the election of senatorial committeemen, as defined in section 2 of this Act shall be made in the manner provided in this Act and not otherwise.

The name of no person, nominated by a party required hereunder to make nominations of candidates for members of the General Assembly shall be placed upon the official ballot to be voted at the election to be held the first Tuesday after the first Monday in the month of November, A. D. 1910, as a candidate unless such person shall have been nominated for such office under the provisions of this Act, and all nominations made prior to July 1, A. D. 1910, of candidates for such office to be voted for at said election are hereby declared of no effect, and no nomination for any such office made prior to July 1, A. D. 1910, shall entitle any person so nominated to have his name placed upon the official ballot to be voted at said election.

Sec. 2. POLITICAL PARTY DEFINED.] The term "political party" as used in this Act shall mean a political party which, at the next preceding election for Governor polled at least two per cent of the entire vote cast in the State.

Sec. 3. WORDS AND PHRASES.] The following words and phrases in this Act shall, unless the same be inconsistent with the context, be construed as follows:

(1) The words "senatorial office" or "senatorial officer," State Senator and Representatives in the General Assembly.

Sec. 4. DATE OF PRIMARY.] A primary shall be held on the first Wednesday after the second Tuesday in September, in the year A. D. 1914, and every two years thereafter for the nomination of candidates for senatorial offices and for the election of senatorial committeemen.

Whenever, in this Act, the term, "April primary" or equivalent words shall appear such term or such words shall be construed to refer to and include the primary to be held on the first Wednesday after the second Tuesday in September. [As amended June 27, 1913.]

Sec. 5. SENATORIAL COMMITTEE — HOW ELECTED.] There shall be constituted a senatorial committee for each senatorial district: Provided, however, that nothing herein contained shall prevent a political party from electing or appointing in accordance with its practice any other committees.

The senatorial committee of each political party shall be elected as follows:

(a) In senatorial districts comprised of three or more counties, the senatorial committee shall be composed of one member elected from each county of such senatorial district.

At the September primary held in the year A. D. 1910, and at the April primary held every two years thereafter, each primary elector may vote for one candidate of his party residing in his county for members [member] of the senatorial committee of his party.

(b) In senatorial districts comprised of two counties, the senatorial committee shall be composed of three members, two of whom shall be elected from the county in which such political party at the general election for State and county officers then next preceding a primary polled the larger number of votes in such senatorial district, and one of whom shall be elected from the other county of such senatorial district.

At the September primary held in the year A. D. 1910, and at the April primary held every two years thereafter, each primary elector, residing in a county in which such political party at the general election for State and county officers then next preceding a primary polled the larger number of votes in such senatorial district, may vote for two candidates of his party, residing in his county, for members of the senatorial committee of his party (and at such primary in the other county of such senatorial district, each primary elector may vote for one candidate of his party) residing in his county for member of the senatorial committee of his party.

(c) In senatorial districts composed of one county, and in senatorial districts wholly within the territorial limits of one county, or partly within the territorial limits of one county, and partly within the territorial limits of another county, the senatorial committee shall be composed of three members elected from such senatorial district.

At the September primary held in the year A. D. 1910, and at the April primary held every two years thereafter, each primary elector may vote for three candidates of his party, residing in such senatorial district, for members of the senatorial committee of his party.

Within thirty days after its election, the senatorial committee shall meet and proceed to organize by electing from among its own number a chairman, and either from its own number or otherwise, such other officers as said committee may deem necessary or expedient. The outgoing chairman of the senatorial committee of the party shall notify the members elected of the time and place (which shall be in the limits of such senatorial district) of such meeting.

Sec. 6. EXISTING PARTY COMMITTEES RECOGNIZED — PETITION — NUMBER OF SIGNERS.] The various political party committees now in existence are hereby recognized and shall exercise the powers and perform the duties herein prescribed until committeemen are chosen, in accordance with the provisions of this Act. The name of no candidate for nomination or senatorial committeeman shall be printed upon the primary ballot unless a petition for nomination shall have been filed in his behalf as herein provided.

All petitions for nomination shall be signed as follows:

(a) If for a senatorial office, by at least one-half of one per cent of the qualified primary electors of his party in his senatorial district.

(b) If for senatorial committeeman, by at least ten of the primary electors of his party of the county where the senatorial district is co-extensive with one county or is composed of more than one county; but in case the senatorial district is wholly within the territorial limits of one county, or partly within the territorial limits of one county and partly within the territorial limits of another county, then such petition shall be signed by at least ten (10) of the primary electors of his party of his senatorial district.

In determining the total numbers [number] of names necessary to constitute a valid petition for a candidate for nomination for a senatorial office as required by this section, the test shall be one-half of one per cent of the total vote cast by his party for Governor in the senatorial district at the election for Governor then next preceding the primary.

Sec. 7. FILING OF PETITIONS—WITHDRAWALS.] All petitions for nominations shall be filed as follows:

(1) Where the nomination is made for a senatorial office such petition for nomination shall be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, not more than sixty (60) and not less than forty (40) days prior to the date of the primary.

(2) The petitions of candidates for senatorial committeemen shall be filed in the office of the county clerk not more than sixty (60) and not less than forty (40) days prior to the date of the primary.

(3) The Secretary of State and the various clerks with whom such petitions for nomination are filed shall endorse thereon the day and hour on which each petition was filed.

(4) Any person for whom a petition for nomination or for senatorial committeeman has been filed may cause his name to be withdrawn in writing, signed by him, duly acknowledged before an officer qualified to take acknowledgments of deeds and filed in the office of the Secretary of State, not less than thirty-five (35) or with the proper clerk not less than thirty-five (35) days prior to the day of the primary and no names so withdrawn shall be certified by the Secretary of State to the county clerk or printed on the primary ballot. [As amended June 27, 1913.]

Sec. 8. CERTIFICATION TO COUNTY CLERK AND ELECTION COMMISSIONERS.] Not less than thirty (30) days prior to the date of the primary, the Secretary of State shall certify to the county clerk of each county the names of all candidates for senatorial offices as specified in the petitions for nominations on file in his office, which are to be voted for in such county, stating in such certificates the political affiliations of each candidate for nomination as specified in said petition. The Secretary of State shall, in his certificate to the county clerk, certify to said county clerk the names of the candidates in the order in which said names shall appear upon the primary ballot, said names to appear in the order in which petitions shall have been filed in the office of the Secretary of State, except as otherwise provided in this Act.

Not less than twenty-eight days (28) prior to the date of the primary, the county clerk shall certify to the board of election commissioners, if there be any such board in his county, the names of all candidates so certified to him by the Secretary of State, together with the names of all candidates for senatorial committeemen in the districts wholly or partly within the jurisdiction of said board and in the order in which such names are certified to him, or in which petitions are filed in his office. [As amended June 27, 1913.

Sec. 9. BALLOTS—BY WHOM PRINTED — NAMES.] The county clerk of each county or the Board of Election Commissioners, as the case may be, shall prepare and cause to be printed the primary ballot of each political party for each precinct in his respective county and the names of all candidates provided in this Act which are certified to the office of the county clerk by the Secretary of State and of all candidates for senatorial committeeman whose petitions have been filed in said office shall be placed on the same ballot as candidates for other offices for nominations, to be voted for at the same primary election, properly arranged, however, under the name of each office. Below the name of the office of Representative in the General Assembly shall be printed in small letters the directions to the voters, "vote for one, two or three."

Sec. 10. NAMES ON BALLOT — ORDER.] The Secretary of State shall in his certificate to the county clerk certify to said county clerk the position which the names of candidates for senatorial officers [offices] shall occupy upon the primary ballot with reference to the position of candidates for other offices. The names of the candidates for senatorial committeemen shall, under the proper heading, be placed on the primary ballot immediately after the names of the candidates for senatorial offices, in the order in which their petitions were filed in the office of the county clerk.

Sec. 11. REPRESENTATIVES IN GENERAL ASSEMBLY—NUMBER—HOW VOTED FOR.] At least thirty-three (33) days prior to the date of the April primary the senatorial committee of each political party shall meet and, by resolution fix and determine the number of candidates to be nominated by their party at the primary for Representative in the General Assembly. A copy of said resolution, duly certified by the chairman and attested by the secretary of the committee, shall within five days thereafter be filed in the office of the Secretary of State, and in the office of the county clerk of each county in the senatorial district.

In all primaries for the nomination of candidates for Representatives in the General Assembly each qualified primary elector may cast three votes for one candidate or may distribute the same or equal parts thereof among two candidates or three candidates as he shall see fit. And the said candidate or candidates for nomination highest in votes shall be declared nominated for the office to be filled.

Sec. 12. CANVASS OF VOTES—HOW COUNTED.] The votes for the nomination of candidates for Representative in the General Assembly shall be canvassed in the following manner.

(1) When a cross is placed in the squares preceding the names of three (3) candidates and the ballot for Representative in the General Assembly is not otherwise marked it shall be counted as one vote for each candidate.

(2) When a cross is placed in the squares preceding the names of two candidates, and the ballot for Representative in the General Assembly is not otherwise marked, it shall be counted as one and one-half ($1\frac{1}{2}$) votes for each of such candidates.

(3) When a cross is placed in the square preceding the name of one candidate, and the ballot for Representative in the ed, it shall be counted as three (3) votes for such candidate.

(4) When the ballot has been so marked as to indicate the intention to cast more than three votes for the nomination of candidates for Representatives in the General Assembly, such ballot shall not be counted for any of such candidates.

The requisite number of persons receiving the highest number of votes as candidates of their party in any county, or senatorial district, as the case may be, for senatorial committeemen, shall be declared elected senatorial committeemen from such county, or senatorial district.

If the primary elector marks more names upon the primary ballot than there are persons to be nominated as candidates for State Senator or for senatorial committeeman, or if for any reason it is impossible to determine the primary elector's choice of a candidate for the nomination for State Senator or senatorial committeeman, his primary ballot shall not be counted for the nomination for such office or committeeman.

Sec. 13. RETURNS OF PRIMARY — CANVASS, CERTIFICATION, TABULATION— CONTESTS.] Except as herein otherwise expressly provided, each, every and all of the provisions of any Act relating to the holding of primary elections by political parties, passed by this extraordinary session of the General Assembly, and Acts hereafter passed amendatory thereof shall, so far as the same may be applicable, apply to and govern primary elections and contests thereof held under the provisions of this Act. The returns of such primary shall be made to the county clerk or board of election commissioners, as the case may be, and shall be canvassed and certified as other returns made to the county clerk or board of election commissioners, as the case may be. The county canvassing board, or the board of election commissioners, as the case may be, shall issue a certificate of election to the requisite number of persons of each political party shown by the returns to be elected members of the senatorial committee.

Tabulated statements of the returns of the primary for the nomination of candidates for senatorial offices shall be made to the Secretary of State, canvassed by the State Primary Canvassing Board, proclamation of the result thereof made, and certificates of nomination issued, as in the case of other tabulated statements of returns made to the Secretary of State, and the election of any person nominated or of senatorial committeemen may be contested by filing with the clerk of the circuit court a petition in writing and filing notice in writing with the proper canvassing boards as required by the Acts last referred to and the pains and penalties prescribed in the Acts last referred to shall apply to and govern all elections held under this Act. [As amended June 27, 1913.

Sec. 14. INDEPENDENT CANDIDATES.]
Nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to prevent the nomination of independent candidates by petition, as is now or may hereafter be provided by law.
